

Roberto Colombo

Artist presentation

Roberto Colombo is an eclectic Italian guitar player, whose brilliant music career embraces more than 35 years experience.

In the past years, he has steadily played in Italy in most of the best pubs and discotheques, he performed some gigs and tournee in Switzerland and France, he played for events, private parties, pubs, and restaurants in Shanghai.

Now he lives in Munich (Germany), where he proposes a unique acoustic fingerstyle guitar repertoire.

His instrumental music is targeted for restaurants, pubs, conventions, and events, where people want to enjoy their time while listening to some pleasant, unique music.

The repertoire composition is accurately chosen to fulfill different customer needs and it includes 132 songs, embracing various styles, like classic and folk traditional Italian song; distinguished re-arrangements of famous international pop, rock, and disco-music covers; cover of virtuoso fingerstyle players; joyful songs in the original Trevis picking technique, Irish music, etc.

Each song includes melody, harmony, bass line parts, and in some cases percussive rhythm too, creating a fully polyphonic sound, giving the sensation that more guitar player is performing at the same time.
